

If anything the NO CALL list should be expanded to include all the calls soliciting money for the police, special olympics, etc. Everyone has access to those types of donations in their towns any places of employment; we shouldn't have to be harassed at home. Under no circumstances should any solicitation calls be allowed to be made to cell phones.